This book is the partsbook of a Verachtert product.

For a proper and save functioning, it is required to replace defective parts by original spare parts.

Repairing or welding parts is only allowed with written permission of Verachtert B.V..

In order to make sure the correct part is delivered on time, please state the following:

- type of equipment
- serial number
- position number
- part number
- quantity
- name and adress of customer

The first two items can also be found in the operating manual or the type label mounted on the product.

The instructions to use the product are given in the "operating manual". The delivery of the product also includes the operating manual.

Always consult the operating manual when carrying out maintenance or repair jobs.
